Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Advent

Advent is a time of longing—longing for God to touch our world with His saving grace because the world cannot answer our deepest needs. It is Christ Jesus who made that a reality and we continue to find hope and healing in the gift of His life and the power of the Gospel He proclaimed for us. In Him we are able to look beyond the limitations of the world and our lives and find peace, hope and love in the new life he calls us to share with him.

Staying in touch with the Scriptures, the Eucharist and our Community at St. James is vitally important to keeping our lives balanced and focused on the important realities of our lives.

May your hearts be open to the promise of new life in this Advent season.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike & Fr. Thaddeus

Advent Day of Recollection

With 80 in attendance, Fr. Mark Strader led a morning of Recollection in anticipation of Advent. Fr. Mark's theme was "Lord, come to the manger of our hearts: the dwelling place of Your Love." Fr. Mark grew up in St. James Parish and is now pastor at St. Bartholomew's in Long Beach. The event was organized and managed by the St. James Guild. Following Mass at 8 AM, all attendees enjoyed a delicious breakfast at Kavanagh Hall, prepared by the Guild.

Fr. Mark expanded on the Morning's Theme with discussions of the importance of setting time aside to clean cobwebs from our hearts and to discuss the weekly Advent Themes of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love.

There was lively small group discussion and excellent topics of reflection and prayer. The Guild's next event will be March 9, 2024 – a Lenten Morning of Reflection with Bishop Marc Trudeau.

A Holy Day of Obligation

Masses are:
Thursday vigil at 5:30pm
Friday 8am, 12noon
and 5:30pm

*The angel came to her and said, "Hail, full of grace!
The Lord is with you." Lk. 1:28*

Mary, whose conception was brought about the normal way, was conceived without original sin or its stain. The essence of original sin consists in the deprivation of sanctifying grace, and its stain is a corrupt nature. Mary was preserved from these defects by God's grace; from the first instant of her existence she was in the state of sanctifying grace and was free from the corrupt nature original sin brings.

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Community Penance Services

Monday, Dec. 11th at American Martyrs

Tuesday, Dec. 12th at St. James.

Both begin at 7:30 pm Priests from local parishes will be there to hear your confession. Why Wait?

Confession every Saturday 4-5pm in church

Why go to confession?

Jesus entered this world to forgive sins.

Recall the words of our Lord: "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him may not die but may have eternal life." (Jn 3:16)

During His public ministry, Jesus preached about the forgiveness of sins: remember the parables of the Prodigal Son (Lk 15:11ff) or the Lost Sheep (Lk 15:1ff), and His teaching that "There will likewise be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over 96 righteous people who have no need to repent." (Lk 15:7)

Jesus Himself forgave sins: remember the story of the woman caught in adultery (Jn 8:1ff) or the woman who washed His feet with her tears. (Lk 7:36ff)

He also taught us to pray for forgiveness in the "Our Father": "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

His mission of reconciliation would climax in His passion, death and resurrection: Jesus suffered, died and rose to free us from sin and death. However, in His divine mercy, Jesus called the sinner to realize the sin, to repent of it, and to be reconciled with God and neighbor. Jesus wanted this ministry of reconciliation to continue. On the first Easter Sunday evening, Jesus appeared to His Apostles, "breathed on them," and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive men's sins, they are forgiven them; if you hold them bound, they are held bound." (Jn 20:21-23)

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Happy Advent!

Thank you to our families who joined us for our Family Day of Service when we caroled at Brookdale this weekend. As always, it is wonderful to help our children understand what it means to love our neighbor in concrete ways.

Our next Family Day of Service is this coming Saturday, December 9th, at 1:15pm, when families will gather to carol at our Feed the Needy program's Christmas Luncheon. Registration is requested, so please contact the Office of Religious Education or email Dr. Robin Potchka at Drpotchka@gmail.com to register.

We look forward to seeing all of our Family Faith Formation families this afternoon at Saint James School. While children are in their Empowering God's Children classes, parents will participate in a mini Advent Retreat.

Traditional Faith Formation classes will meet at St. James Church this Tuesday at 4:15 for assembly. Then, our children in year 1 and 2 will head to Kavanagh Hall for a class on Advent, while our older children receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be Sunday, December 10th, during the 10am Mass. This is our only gathering during Advent.

Finally, many of our parish children received their First Reconciliation this past week. If you stop in the vestibule of church, you can see the artwork the children created after their family faith formation experience on the Gospel of the Lost Sheep.

(see photo below.)

We ask you to continue to pray for these children and their families as they begin to prepare for First Holy Communion this coming Spring.

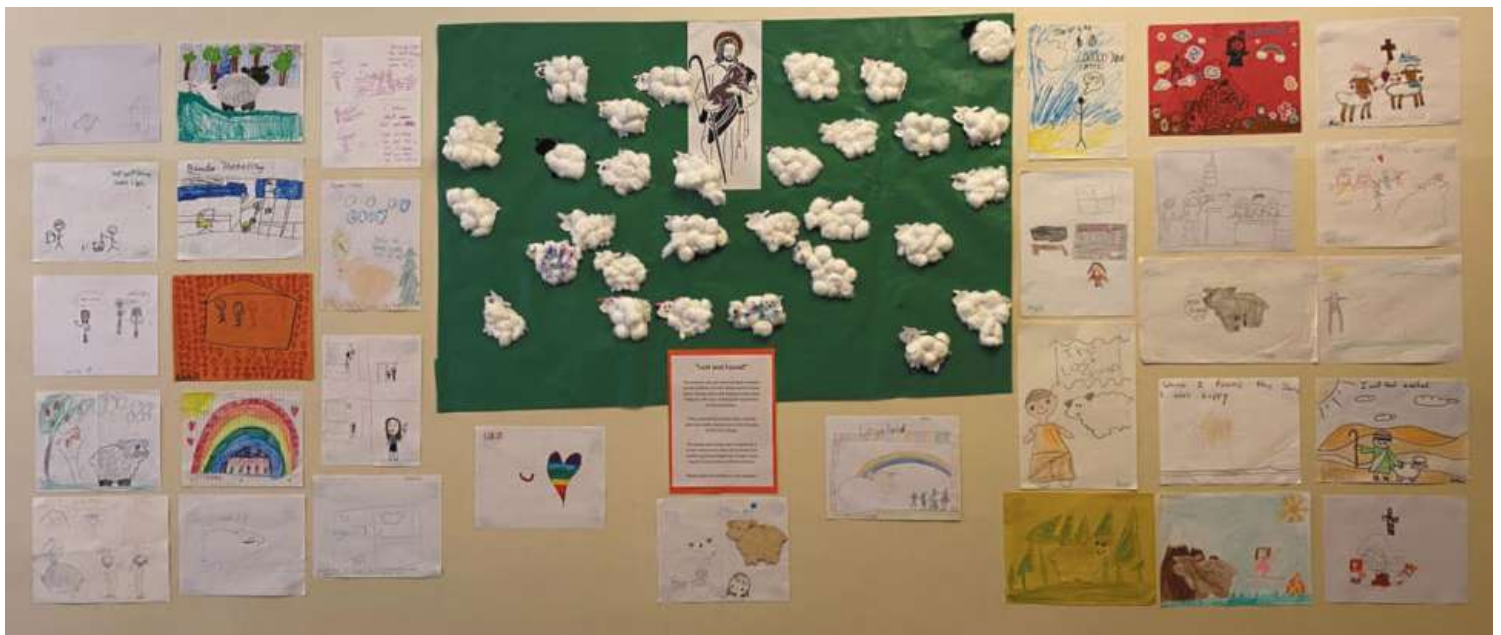

God Bless!

Confirmation Nights

Year 1: Sunday, December 3rd
 Year 2: Sunday, December 10th

On Saturday, November 18th, 85 of our Year 1 Confirmation candidates participated in their day retreat held throughout our St. James campus. Together with 42 of our Teen Disciples & Adult Leaders, we participated in team building activities, opened ourselves up to different forms of prayer & heard powerful testimonies geared toward finding who we are in Christ. Many of our teens left saying "it was an eye opening experience" & we can't wait to continue seeing the Holy Spirit move within them! Please continue praying for our teens.

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,
 Meet Sra. Julia Arce, the Spanish Language teacher for grades 3-8:

"I have a BA in Spanish, a MA in Spanish Literature, and a Single Subject Teaching Credential. I have lived in Colombia and Mexico where I met my husband of 35 years. After traveling through out the Spanish speaking world, it is a great privilege to experience the Catholic Religion through many different cultures. My students have been people of all ages from preschoolers to adults. I have taught English speakers and Heritage speakers. I have even taught Spanish to people who did not speak English. For me, learning Spanish not about knowing or teaching grammar. Helping others acquire a second language is about making it fun and comprehensible."

God Bless you!

Feed the Needy Ministry

As we approach the holidays, our ministry once again needs the assistance of our parishioners in several areas. This will ensure the homeless and needy community experience a joyous Christmas Season.

Opportunities to Deepen your Faith

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Ben Aranda at 310.427.5775 or email:

Would You Like to Complete Your Sacraments?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation?

Catholic Q&A Topic: "Thus Says The Lord"

The readings over these past weeks featured the Hebrew priestly prophet Ezekiel, whose name, Bible scholars translate as, "made strong by God." In those particular times of exile, God determined to gather the people of Israel as part of an "everlasting covenant." We read how he bade Ezekiel:

"Prophecy to these bones...and say to them...Hear the word of the Lord."

These powerfully prophetic scenarios of scripture are marked by divine action: "I the Lord have spoken and will act..."

Q: What does the Church teach about prophecy and the Prophets as part of the fulfillment of God's plan?

A: The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: "Jesus himself stood firmly within the tradition of the prophets. In the Gospel of Luke he describes his mission in the world, transforming words of the Prophet Isaiah:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor... to proclaim liberty to captives...to let the oppressed go free."

Prophetic, redemptive action in the scriptures is clearly marked and animated by the power of the Holy Spirit, breathing life into the saving, transformative power of God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church in Paragraph 64:

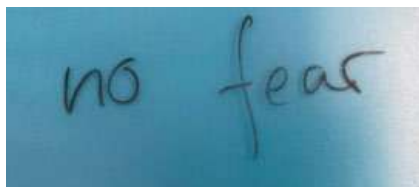

"Through the prophets God forms his people in the hope of salvation in the expectation of a new and everlasting Covenant intended for all, to be written on their hearts."

The prophetic books, scholars tell us, bear the names of the four major and twelve minor prophets. The terms "major" and "minor" refer to the length of their respective compositions and not to their relative importance.

Pope Francis writes about something very important:

"A prophet, brothers and sisters is each one of us who, by virtue of baptism, helps others read the present under the action of the Holy Spirit, which helps people understand God's plans and align yourselves with them."

'Do not fear,
for I am with you;
Do not be afraid,
for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Is. 41:10

Lately I've been listening to a science-based podcast on healthy daily living. The host frequently discusses the wide range of health benefits of sleep. So, each night I'm trying to get more, and better, slumber, and it's helping me feel energized. So, why in the world should we follow Christ's advice this week? 'Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house will come ... lest he find you asleep.' Isn't sleep, especially at midnight and cockcrow, a good thing?

Of course, it is. But the wakefulness the Lord calls us to is a deep, personal orientation to Him. A nightly vigil is therefore a metaphor for this, but it's not just that. We should give up real sleep in order to pray, too. This difficult practice is a time-tested way to foster wakefulness of heart. When we give up sleep to pray, it focuses us. We learn that life is not an endless series of days. You and I belong to the Lord — awake or asleep, in life and in death. Sooner or later, even our need for our physical sleep will pass away. And our attentiveness to God — that is, whether we are awaiting Him to meet us — will be all that matters.

May I challenge us this week and this Advent to intentionally give up at least one hour of sleep each week for prayer? Stay up later, wake up in the middle of the night, or an hour earlier, and pray. Will we be a bit more tired the next day? Yes. But we'll be amazed at the spiritual wakefulness that results, too.
