Pastor's Letter

Dear Members of our St. James Family,

I want to share with you that in October I submitted to Archbishop Gomez my desire to retire from active administration of a parish. He has accepted my request and I will be retiring as Pastor of St James, effective July 1, 2024.

The policy of the Archdiocese states that the normal age of retirement for priests is 70 and a priest must submit his retirement at age 75. I will be 73 next July when I retire. I am hoping to reside in another parish in the San Pedro Region where I could continue to assist with pastoral ministry rather than administration.

Originally I was expecting that the development of the new Parish Center would be completed by 2025 and I would stay to complete the project. With COVID, the long time in negotiating the sale of our property, the 2-year escrow, the focus now with trying to move the Preschool over to the school campus and the real prospect that the Parish Center project will likely take longer than hoped, the timeline is being pushed out much further than what I can do.

It is important then to get a new pastor here who would be able to be part of the planning and would be able to carry out the entire project to completion and beyond.

The transition won't happen for another 7 months, and we still have a lot of work to do on the preschool project and starting the plans for the new Parish Center. We have been through a lot in the last 12 years but our bond of faith has strengthened us and continues to guide us. What we have started here is one of the important blessings for the future of St. James. I have been tremendously blessed by the opportunity to serve here as Pastor during these past 13 years.

Blessings,
Msgr. Mike

Community Penance Services

Monday, Dec. 11th at American Martyrs

Tuesday, Dec. 12th at St. James.

Both begin at 7:30 pm Priests from local parishes will be there to hear your confession. Why wait?

Confession every Saturday 4-5pm in church

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Why go to confession?

Jesus entered this world to forgive sins.

Recall the words of our Lord: "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him may not die but may have eternal life." (Jn 3:16)

During His public ministry, Jesus preached about the forgiveness of sins: remember the parables of the Prodigal Son (Lk 15:11ff) or the Lost Sheep (Lk 15:1ff), and His teaching that "There will likewise be more joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over 96 righteous people who have no need to repent." (Lk 15:7)

Jesus Himself forgave sins: remember the story of the woman caught in adultery (Jn 8:1ff) or the woman who washed His feet with her tears. (Lk 7:36ff)

He also taught us to pray for forgiveness in the "Our Father": "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

His mission of reconciliation would climax in His passion, death and resurrection: Jesus suffered, died and rose to free us from sin and death. However, in His divine mercy, Jesus called the sinner to realize the sin, to repent of it, and to be reconciled with God and neighbor. Jesus wanted this ministry of reconciliation to continue. On the first Easter Sunday evening, Jesus appeared to His Apostles, "breathed on them," and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive men's sins, they are forgiven them; if you hold them bound, they are held bound." (Jn 20:21-23)

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,
Happy Second Sunday of Advent!

Thank you to our families who joined us for our Family Day of Service when we caroled at the Feed the Needy program's Christmas Luncheon this weekend. As always, it is wonderful to help our children understand what it means to love our neighbor in concrete ways. Thanks, also, to Dr. Robin Potchka for her dedication to the Children's Christmas Choir and for leading the caroling for our Family Days of Service this year.

Traditional Faith Formation classes will meet this Tuesday at 4:15. We look forward to learning more about Advent this week. Also, please keep an eye out for the gift from the RE Office that your oldest child will bring home from class on Tuesday. This is our last class until the new year.

Finally, many of our parish children received their First Reconciliation recently. If you stop in the vestibule of church, you can see the artwork the children created after their family faith formation experience on the Gospel of the Lost Sheep. We ask you to continue to pray for these children and their families as they begin to prepare for First Communion this coming Spring.

May you be aware of Emmanuel, God-with-us, as you keep watch this Advent season!

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

St. James Catholic School

Feast Of St. Nicholas at SJS

On Wednesday, SJS students celebrated the feast of St. Nicholas by placing one of their shoes outside their classrooms in hopes that St. Nick would come and place a treat inside. Students emerged at recess surprised that St. Nick came through and supplied a treat in each shoe of every student on his feast day. Later today, students will partner with their buddy grades and St. James Preschoolers to do crafts together. All students are hoping that St. Nicholas himself will be stopping by as well.

New Playground! St. James School broke ground on Nov. 27 on a new playground structure. Students and staff are very excited to see and play on the completed structure after we return from Christmas Break.

School will be closed for Christmas Holiday from Dec. 20 through Jan. 5. We are currently accepting mid-year transfers for the 2023 school for grades TK-7 New Student Applications for the 2024 school year begin in January. Wishing everyone a blessed season of Advent and Merry Christmas!

I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil. — Romans 16:17-19

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

Opportunities to Grow your Faith

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Benediction and Adoration

Holy Hour Adoration

December 22nd at 7 pm

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is creature before his Creator.

It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil.

Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever greater God. Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives us assurance to our supplications. -CCC 2628

Catholic Q&A Topic: In the Spirit of Advent

Q: What is the basic message of Advent?

A: Pope St. John Paul II wrote, in December 2002:

"Watch." "This admonition that Jesus addresses to us (Mark 13:33) is the basic message of the Advent Season: to be vigilant while waiting for the Messiah. Let us remain alert, to be ready to meet the Savior who comes to reveal to us the face of the heavenly Father."

The Second Letter of Peter offers additional guidance applicable to our attitude and comportment in faith as we wait and watch during this anticipatory, penitential season. Scholars tell us that the author of this Second Letter, (part of our readings this week), seeks to strengthen readers in faith, as we "grow in grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ."

The Letter also exhorts the faithful to "be attentive to the prophecy of scripture; prophecy which always comes from the Holy Spirit..."

The Catechism, in Paragraph #716, marks a profession of faith that observes God's plan for the coming of Christ; the Spirit making ready "a people prepared for the Lord."

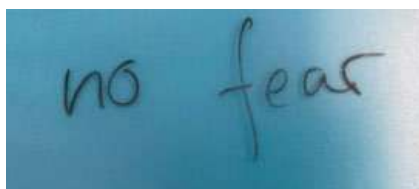

As part of a beautifully encouraging meditation on the message of Advent, the late Mother Mary Frances, former abbess of the Poor Clare Monastery in Rosewell, New Mexico, wrote about the forgiveness of sins. She talked about accepting God's mercy; accepting "the gift of being forgiven." Her view was that this acceptance on our part was "...the whole meaning of Advent, that we are the forgiven ones."

A favorite Choir Hymn by composer Dan Schutte provides a lovely artistic interpretation of the message of Advent:

*"Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night, so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light.
Our eyes have longed to see your loving face, to live within your courts for all our days."*

Amid the spirit of Advent may we be like the sparrow who finds her home beneath His wing, and, as the hymn goes, "may we come to rest where angels sing."

'Do not fear,
for I am with you;
Do not be afraid,
for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Is. 41:10

We like to think we are totally free, but the bitter truth is we simply are not. Or better put, our freedom is limited on every side — by governments, corporate giants, physical and mental frailties, genetic shortcomings, and even the boundaries of time and space, and above all, the burden of our sins and pending deaths. In our day, we are perhaps particularly aware that we are not free to disconnect from the technocratic rulers of the air. If you doubt me, try not paying your internet bill and see what happens. We are not totally free.

It's nothing new, of course. In Jesus' day, everyone felt the crushing weight of the Roman Empire. You can say you're free all you want. But try not paying your taxes to Rome and see what happens.

Once we feel this burden in our own lives — however it comes — we are ready to hear the stunning announcement that commences Mark's gospel, "The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God." It's not a simple perfunctory introduction, but a dramatic announcement of new freedom. The word "gospel" was a political, even military, term. It meant: a great victory has been won and a new king is in charge. This Jesus — not the Roman emperor — is God's son, and he has defeated all that crushes human freedom. It's time to follow him and be truly free. This week let's refuse to submit our freedom to false rulers — especially that of sin. And let's rejoice that Christ is coming to make us perfectly free from all our oppressors.
