The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Love God. Love all People. Make Disciples.

Sunday Masses (Sat 5:30 pm) | Sunday 6:30 am, 8, 10, 12 noon, 5:30 pm | Monday-Friday 8, 12 noon, Saturday 8 am Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

John was standing with two of his disciples,
and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said,
"Behold, the Lamb of God."

The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus.
Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them,
"What are you looking for?"

They said to him, "Rabbi" — which translated means Teacher —,
"where are you staying?"

He said to them, "Come, and you will see."

Jn. 1:35-39

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.

Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

OneLife LA — January, 20th

In 2015, OneLife LA began in Los Angeles as a one-day event meant to catalyze a movement of love and mercy in our city and our entire community. This commitment to service ensures that participants view this event not only as a destination, but as a call to build up their communities. This family-friendly event begins with a solidarity-building walk through downtown Los Angeles, ending with a festival, live music, food trucks, entertainment, and inspiring speakers. Our speakers share powerful stories of what they have overcome in life and how they use that struggle to help others. These stories inspire and mobilize thousands of people to do good work every day to help those in need. <https://onelifela.org/>

Opportunities to Grow your Faith

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Ben Aranda at 310.427.5775 or email:

Would You Like to Complete Your Sacraments?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Benediction and Adoration

Holy Hour Adoration

January 12th at 7 pm

January 26th at 7 pm

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is creature before his Creator.

It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil.

Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever greater God. Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives us assurance to our supplications.-CCC 2628

Topic: A Time to Seek

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops reports that Pope Francis once asked the faithful to:

"...be modern prophets by guiding others... a prophet is someone who shows Jesus to others..."

Offering his own modern style of Christian guidance, Matthew Kelly gives parishioners at St. James, (by way of the largesse of Monsignor Mike in this season of giving), a book called The Rocking Chair Prophet. Kelly is an author, "thought leader," and disciple of the "best version of yourself" paradigm that offers this particular model in the form of a novel. Britannica Encyclopedia defines a novel as "...a prose narrative of significant complexity that deals imaginatively with human experience."

Q: What is this significant, prosaic, complex human experience narrative The Rocking Chair Prophet about?

A: Following a family tragedy, a man embarks on subsequent paths of isolation, meditative growth, exploration, and enlightenment.

It's a highly readable short novel about self-knowledge, emotion, and an articulation of personal and communal potential, culminating in what Kelly calls:

"...the Divine Spirit within you."

The Catechism Of The Catholic Church in Part One Section One, Chapter 2 teaches that the prophets:

"...proclaim a radical redemption of the people of God ...a salvation..."

Interestingly, too, amid the often mysterious realm of the prophets, there is literature that comes from both spiritual and secular sources.

For example, in an academic slave-to-freedom Pulitzer Prize biography of 19th century reformer Frederick Douglass by Yale Historian David W. Blight, the articulate Douglass wrote about his redemptive motives:

"There is a prophet within us, forever whispering that behind the seen lies the immeasurable unseen."

Kelly's novel of recovery and healing concludes with a reference to the Book of Ecclesiastes, familiar in its ethereal syllogism of opposites:

"A time to live and a time to die. A time to weep and a time to heal."

As Pope Francis said:

"...modern prophets guiding and showing Jesus to others."

The immeasurable unseen.

As a priest, I'm amazed how happily married couples remember the tiniest details of their earliest encounters. They effortlessly report things like: "he wore a blue shirt," "we ordered brussels sprouts," "her hair was up in a bun," and "he spilled shrimp cocktail sauce at my family's open front door when it was ten degrees below zero," (that one's courtesy of my mom). We delight in remembering and speaking of when our new life of love began. The little details are glorious reminders that it's all real.

It's similar for John the Apostle. He tells us of the two disciples who followed Jesus into his house, "...they stayed with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon."

Why does that tiny detail matter? Because that's the time of day when they encountered the love of Jesus the Messiah in their lives. Our religion is not primarily about abstract truths about God, no matter how true or sublime. It is about God meeting and saving us in our human nature. It's about a human relationship.

What was the time of day when you first recall encountering Christ and his Church? Who was there? What did you feel? How did things look and smell? What happened? Take some time to recall it in detail. For me, it was inside an old, rickety church on a hillside in Jerome, Arizona. It was about 9 p. m. on a Saturday evening. I was with my friends Jenny, Brad, and Laura. We were praying, singing, and laughing. When was it for you? Remembering the details isn't empty nostalgia.

It reminds us now that God's love for us in our humanity is real.
