Thank you for your Continued Support of St. James!

Our parish ministries continue because so many people need our help. Recurring gifts helped sustain our parish in unprecedented times, and continue to be a vital source of support for ministries that are a lifeline to those in need in our community.

As Lent is rapidly approaching, this is our time to reflect on the incredible love and sacrifice our Savior made for us to open the gates of heaven. As we prepare to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus our savior, let us humbly accept this gift and remember those in need and served by our parish ministries.

Your eGiving donations allows our ministry to continue to provide gifts to the community and demonstrate in a tangible way, Christ's love for us.

Opportunities to Grow your Faith

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Ben Aranda at 310.427.5775 or email:

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is creature before his Creator.

It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil.

Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever greater God. Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives us assurance to our supplications.-CCC 2628

Topic: The Decades of Discipleship

On a chilly Saturday morning a man went out on his daily "rosary walk."

Q: Why would he do that?

A: The man acknowledged that while he was certainly unworthy and inadequate, nevertheless he could appreciate the solace, guidance and hopeful possibilities to be found amid the decades of those affirming, potentially transformative Marian prayers.

Every day he thought about and admired the amazing courage and fortitude of Mary's faithful actions.

Saturday's Joyful Mysteries, as always, prompted meditative, critical self-discernment:

The Annunciation finds Mary, frightened and bewildered, yet trusting of God's plan.

By The Visitation Mary, again, moves in the spirit of God's plan. The Nativity with all its struggles and peril, fulfills the ancient prophecy.

Following the law, The Presentation In The Temple adheres once again to the ordered, guiding, clarifying divine plan.

The man could identify intellectually and viscerally, with The Finding of Jesus In The Temple. He could always feel the presence of Jesus during Mass at St. James.

He could find Jesus within the "temple" that is his own searching heart, and could often find Jesus reflected in the faces of the people he encountered each day. He, like Mary, could be frightened and bewildered by the vicissitudes of life yet he can appreciate the guidance, and the "second chances" found within the redemptive and hopeful compassion of the rosary.

Through the rosary, the unworthy can spiritually pivot to make rosary-inspired "course corrections" of faith and action. The bright star at the Nativity recalled in the rosary narrative still directs us in finding Jesus, in spite of the shadows of our own shortcomings, mistakes, regrets and failures.

The Catechism lauds the value of the Rosary. Pope John Paul II wrote that The Holy Rosary reveals the entire history of salvation, acts as a powerful weapon against evil, and is:

"...an effective means of obtaining true peace in our hearts."

The man walked on, following God's plan with hopeful prayer: Hail Holy Queen, most gracious advocate...

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.
