The Third Sunday in Lent

415 Vincent Street | Redondo Beach, CA 90277

Love God. Love all People. Make Disciples.

Sunday Masses (Sat 5:30 pm) | Sunday 6:30 am, 8, 10, 12 noon, 5:30 pm | Monday-Friday 8, 12 noon, Saturday 8 am

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

Since the Passover of the Jews was near,
Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
He found in the temple area those who sold oxen,
sheep, and doves,
as well as the money changers seated there.
He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen,
and spilled the coins of the money changers
and overturned their tables,
and to those who sold doves he said,
“Take these out of here,
and stop making my Father’s house a marketplace.” Jn. 2:13-16

Pastor's Letter

Downsizing

I'm facing an all-too-familiar reality in our lives - the need to downsize. With my impending retirement the end of June I've been trying to figure out how to tackle the project. Mostly, I just look around, move a couple of things, wonder when the St. Vincent de Paul truck is going to be here again and then find something else to do. My little desk trash bucket has been replaced by a bigger trash can, but sits only half-full—how can I throw away all the things that I have been holding on to for the last 13 years?

I'm going to tag everything with stickers: green to keep, red to trash, yellow for St. Vincent de Paul, blue for what goes in storage. I haven't bought the stickers yet—I hope the new Michael's Store has them.

It actually reminds me of Lent and all the resolutions we make, but find so hard to actually fulfill. Knowing what has to be done and actually doing it are so far apart. Don't lose heart, keep finding the little things to do and keep moving in the direction of God's love. Find what is good in your life and keep it and share it. Recognize the trash for what it is and make sure it gets thrown out. Don't give up.

Speaking of trash, now is the time to get rid of the habitual sins we have been accumulating and holding onto all these years. We're offering Penance Services the week of March 18th for this. Things to keep are the Guild Retreat next Saturday, Sunday Mass, Stations of the Cross every Friday night at 7:30pm, Palm Sunday and all of Holy Week.

I'm sure that in the midst of cleaning out all the clutter in my life, I will be inspired to continue to clean out all the clutter in other rooms. Keep up the good work you've started in Lent.

Blessings!

Msgr. Mike

Coffee and Donuts!

Join us in Kavanagh Hall for delicious coffee and sweet donuts after the 8 and 10am Masses on Sunday.

Thanks to the Tues. Night Bible Study Ministry.

Maybe you grew up Catholic.
 Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
 Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
 Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
 And maybe it feels awkward and scary
 to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
 But not sure for what.
 We get it.
 We've been there.
 Now we are here.
 Maybe God is calling you, too.
 Just as you are.
 Welcome home.

Shining Stars in Christ—Honorees: Patrick and Delia Cunningham

St. James Catholic Church has been the chosen place of worship over the past 32 years for Patrick & Delia Cunningham, where they devote their service to ministry and the St. James Community.

Delia, one of eight siblings, was born in Fresno, CA to parents Paul and Maria Pacheco, who immigrated from Mexico. During her elementary and high school years, Delia attended CCD catechism classes and graduated from Fresno High School at age 17. She moved to Los Angeles to attend college. She graduated from the Radiology Technology Program at El Camino College and worked as a Special Procedures/Cath Lab Technologist from 1985 to 2014. She also worked part time as a Radiology Clinical Instructor at El Camino College. In 2015, she launched her dream floral business titled Delia's Cariño, when translated means "to give endearing love" which she still dabbles in today.

Patrick, one of 3 siblings, was born in Santa Monica, CA to parents Sean and Maureen Cunningham, who immigrated from Ireland. At age 2, his family moved to Westchester, CA where he attended St. Jerome's Elementary Catholic School and St. Bernard Catholic High School. He studied Architecture at Woodbury University, became a licensed Architect, partnered with his brother Michael, and together they own and operate C&C Partners Design Build Firm for the past 37 years.

Patrick & Delia met on a blind date in 1989, married in 1992 and had two beautiful daughters, Brianna and Nikala. Both girls attended St. James School, Bishop Montgomery High School, and are active in their own St. James ministries.

Delia serves as a Eucharistic Minister, a member of Feed the Needy Ministry, the Women's Guild Ministry, and she was involved in the creation of the Big Red Opportunity Drawing for St. James school.

Patrick serves as a Lector and was a past member of the Pastoral Council and Men's Cornerstone. He also served as a member of the Campaign Executive Committee for the recently acquired church property.

They enjoy spending time with family, friends, gatherings, traveling, snow skiing, life, and practicing their faith!

Y2 Weekend Retreat

March 15th-17th

Forty-three of our teens & chaperones participated in LA Youth Day that took place at the Anaheim Convention Center. We had an amazing time gathering with thousands of teens & fellow youth ministers throughout the archdiocese for engaging workshops & opportunities for prayer. Our teens are already excited for next year's Youth Day!

We are also under 2 weeks away from our Year 2 weekend retreat! Please keep our teens in your prayers!

If you have any questions on joining our team or any future youth ministry events, please feel free to contact us at the information provided below.

Thank you for your Continued Support of St. James!

Our parish ministries continue because so many people need our help. Recurring gifts helped sustain our parish in unprecedented times, and continue to be a vital source of support for ministries that are a lifeline to those in need in our community.

As we approach Easter, we focus our daily activities on growing closer to Christ through an increase in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. May this extend into our lives beyond this liturgical season. Signing up with Faith Direct is a great way to focus on almsgiving throughout the year. It is a secure and convenient way to make a conscious decision about your financial support of our many wonderful ministries.

Your eGiving donations allows our ministry to continue to provide gifts to the community and demonstrate in a tangible way, Christ's love for us.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Thanks to all of those who attended the Lenten Family Day of Service yesterday. What a joyful experience of loving and serving God by loving and serving our neighbor!

The Lenten Reconciliation Service for families with children in Traditional and Family Faith Formation will be held this Tuesday from 4:15-5:30 in the church. Watch your emails for more details.

On Sunday, Mar. 10th, the Office of Religious Education will host "Holy Pause," and all parish families are invited to stop by Kavanagh Hall anytime between 9am and Noon. Along with Coffee and Donuts, we will have experiential stations where you can pray, create a small craft project to take home, and complete a service opportunity at your own pace.

We hope you will join us for a fun, hands-on, and meaningful event to help deepen your family's Lenten journey. Remember, all parish families are welcome! RSVP requested (to help ensure we have enough materials) but not required at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

Also, please save the date for "Called to Serve," an evening of reflection for adults on Wednesday, Mar. 20th, from 6:30-8:30. Come to consider if God is calling you to the ministry of catechesis with the children, teens, or adults of our parish.

For more information or to register, please contact the Office of Religious Education at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

Finally, please check out the main page of parish website for our Lent Resource at www.saintjames.church where you will find lots of information and ideas to help you celebrate the season of Lent.

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Save the Date for "Called to Serve" An evening of reflection Wed., March 20th, from 6:30-8:30pm.

Come and reflect upon the gifts God has given you and how you can best use them here at St. James within the ministry of catechesis, which means "to echo." Discover how you can echo the love of God with the children, teens, and adults of our parish.

For more information or to register, please contact the Office of Religious Education at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

Community and Putting Your Faith in Action

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns cheese sticks
fruit (oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips granola bars
lunch meat & cheese 8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Learning from survivors' stories

Listening to the stories of victim-survivors is one way in which we can acknowledge what has happened to them and the impact the abuse has had in their lives; hearing these sacred stories can also help us to find patterns that empower stronger safeguarding measures, such as understanding how and where abusers gained access to their victims, how they groomed them, and what safeguards either failed or were not in place to properly protect a victim.

For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Learning from True Stories of Victims/Survivors" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is open daily for quiet prayer from 7am-7pm. Daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward. Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Medjugorje Rosary Prayer Group

Join us! We continue to pray the rosary in the midst of this difficult time.

We meet in Kavanagh Hall every Monday at 7 pm.

Experience inner peace.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Ben Aranda at 310.427.5775 or email:
Ben_Aranda@yahoo.com

Would You Like to Complete Your Sacraments?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, contact us about becoming a candidate to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation). If you have not received your First Holy Communion, this class will prepare you to do that as well. Our Fall series of classes is scheduled to begin in early September, 2024.

To receive further information and details on this process, please contact Deacon Bob & Patty Miller at dnbob99@gmail.com or call us at 310.386.2930. If you know of someone who may benefit from this process, please feel free to pass this information along to them.

Why Go to Confession This Lent

Lent is the time of year when God obligates us to prepare our hearts and to purify our souls so that we are ready to receive Our Lord in His glorious coming at Easter. There's no time to delay.

The Bible says, "Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Cor. 6:2).

During this season, every day we should try to make a good examination of conscience by asking ourselves these questions:

- Is there something I can do to get closer to God?
- Is there something I can do to know God better and to love Him more?
- Is there some way I can increase my desire for prayer?
- Is there some way I can rekindle that fire of divine love that might have gone out in my life?
- Is there some way I can rid myself of the spiritual mediocrity, the spiritual indifference that I find myself in so much of the time?
- Is there something I can give up?
- Is there something in my life right now that is not pleasing to Almighty God?
- Is there some sin that I am holding on to?
- Is there some habitual sin that is separating my heart from God's loving grace?
- Is there something I need to confess?
- Am I crucifying Our Lord all over again by living in my sins?

Further, we should pray every day:

Lord, let there be less of me and more of You. Let me say no to my will and yes to Yours. God, give me the grace to love You more today than yesterday and more tomorrow than today.

The Fatima seer Jacinta spoke this challenging truth: "If men only knew what eternity is, how they would make all possible efforts to amend their lives."

With this in mind, let us explore the special grace God gives us in the sacrament of Confession to help us on that journey of sanctification.

I am the Lord your God ...

You shall not have other gods beside me. -Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this “idol” to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

Topic: Seek the Lord

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops marks Lent as a 40 day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, writing, “We seek the Lord in prayer...” We are seekers, as in the mode of Philippians 3:14 -

“I press on toward the goal, toward the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.”

Writer Henri Nouwen, described as "...one of the most innovative and influential spiritual writers of the past century," wrote thirty-nine books about the spiritual life. Along this particular theme of Lenten devotion, Nouwen wrote in splendidly dynamic, goal-oriented terms:

“Our Lenten journey informs our movement toward the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.”

In a recent Homily, Monsignor Mike talked about encountering Christ in each other. Nouwen writes: "We see Christ in the Scriptures...seeing him, we follow him and discover Christ in one another."

Q: The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the many forms of prayer. Is there a particular set of prayers that could serve to make especially reverent each day of the Lenten journey?

A: Yes. The Bishops describe a set of prayers which were originally prayed in Latin, morning, noon, and evening in honor of the Incarnation. The brief devotion of The Angelus, deriving its name from the opening phrase, Angelus Domini nuntiavit Mariae (the Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.), echoes the clerical praying of the Liturgy of the Hours. It's a triple recitation of the Hail Mary and short verses from the Bible. Ave Maria Press states that, "Praying the Angelus sanctifies the hours of the day. God is our all, our very beginning and the end toward which we strive." Amid this Lenten journey, calling us to prayer, the Angelus bells toll in our ears and within our searching hearts. (Our church bells play the Angelus at noon and 6 pm.—Ed.)
