Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

First Communions This Weekend

This weekend we have 50 of our children and youths making their 1st Communions during our Sunday Masses—a few at each Mass.

What a nice change it has been these last few years when the 1st Communions are received during our Sunday Masses and the children are welcomed to receive Eucharist with the worshipping community rather than in a 'private' celebration.

It really helps to connect them to becoming a richer part of the Church. Please welcome them with joyful hearts as you remember your own 1st Communions.

We are in need of a bookkeeper/accountant who can assist us in a special volunteer project for a very few weeks. Please call the parish office to set up a meeting with me if you are available to help.

Please pray, especially this week for our new Pastor who will be announced by the Archbishop on Wednesday, May 1st, and will begin ministry here on July 1st.

Blessings!

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

The Last Supper and Holy Communion

Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying,

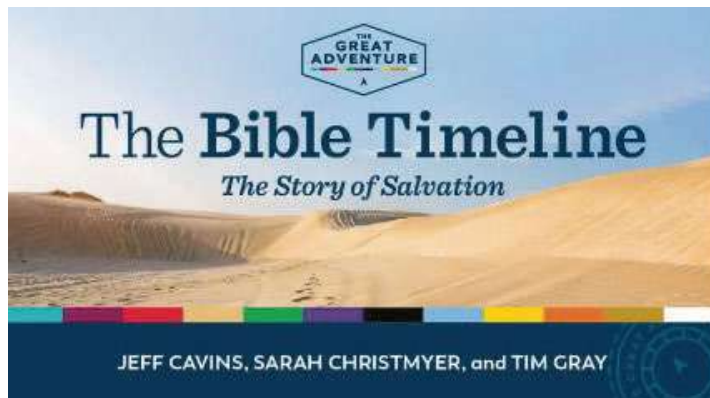

“This is my body, which will be given for you;
do this in memory of me.”

And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying,
“This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
which will be shed for you” (Luke 22:19-20)

In the Last Supper of Christ and His disciples, Jesus offers bread and wine as His body and blood for his followers to partake "in remembrance" of Him.

The Council of Trent declared:

“Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly his body that he was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, and this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.” (CCC 1376)

The Final Judgment

“When the Son of Man comes as King and all the angels with him, he will sit on his royal throne, and the people of all the nations will be gathered before him.

Then he will divide them into two groups, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the righteous people at his right and the others at his left.

Then the King will say to the people on his right, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father!

Come and possess the kingdom which has been prepared for you ever since the creation of the world. I was hungry and you fed me, thirsty and you gave me a drink; I was a stranger and you received me in your homes, naked and you clothed me; I was sick and you took care of me, in prison and you visited me.’

The righteous will then answer him, ‘When, Lord, did we ever see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? When did we ever see you a stranger and welcome you in our homes, or naked and clothe you? When did we ever see you sick or in prison, and visit you?’

The King will reply, ‘I tell you, whenever you did this for one of the least important of these followers of mine, you did it for me!’ Mt. 25:31-46

Holy Hour Adoration

Friday, May 10th at 7 pm

Benediction and Adoration

Friday, May 17th
after the 8am Mass until 12 noon

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is creature before his Creator.

It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil.

Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever greater God.

Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives us assurance to our supplications.—CCC 2628

Community and Putting Your Faith in Action

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Alleluia! Alleluia!

This weekend, April 27th and 28th, we welcome close to fifty of our parish children to the Eucharistic table as we celebrate their First Communions during our parish Masses. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers.

As part of their preparation, the children and their families have completed a family faith formation experience called, "Families Transform." We invite you to stop in the vestibule at church to see the artwork the children created after this experience.

Also, registration for Vacation Bible School is open! VBS will be held at St. James School from 9:30-12:30 the week of June 24-28. Go to the parish website to register: <https://www.saintjames.church/vbs>.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be held next Sunday, May 5th, during the 10am Mass. We hope all our parish children will join us!

Next Sunday, May 5th, we will also celebrate the end of another year of Religious Education at the 10am Mass. We ask that all Religious Education families meet on the front steps of the church at 9:45am.

Finally, as we dwell in the joy of Easter, we ask that you consider if you are called to the ministry of Catechesis, which is to echo the love of God in the world. If so, please reach out to the Office of Religious Education to start a conversation. There are so many ways to serve the people of St. James Parish as a Catechists, and we hope you will consider if the Spirit calls you to this ministry.

May you have a blessed and joyful Easter! Alleluia!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Michael Prayer

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Topic: Words of Life

In Luke's Gospel we find Zacchaeus, a Jewish man intrigued by the phenomenal, burgeoning ministry of Jesus. Scripture relates that, with a determined spirit, he was of one mind: "I want to see him!" Small in stature, the affluent tax collector and seeker climbed a sycamore tree for greater perspective. Jesus recognized him, calling him out by name; and a spiritual connection followed.

Q: Could that encounter, illustrative of a person seeking Jesus, be a metaphor for finding and living the Good News, and doesn't it reflect a connective thread of active, dynamic faith in action here at St. James?

A: Yes. Firstly, Pope John Paul II told his Bishops in 1988: "When we preach the liberating message of Jesus we are offering the words of life to the world." The USCCB wrote:

"We believe that the Gospel of Jesus is a Gospel of Life."

Here at St. James our pastoral leaders echo those spiritual directives that promote a real Living Word:

*Monsignor Mike, back when he gifted us the Kelly book, Holy Moments, wrote about

"...finding hope, strength and love in the Word of Christ that we share each time we gather."

*At a recent weekday Mass, Father Thaddeus spoke in his homily about, "...looking for and consulting Jesus in all things, at all times." As far as the liturgy goes, Father preaches, "Put into practice what you believe."

*In a Sunday homily, Father Chibuike spoke about "inner disposition." He called on parishioners to,

"Live your faith. Live what you believe."

*Deacon Bob often calls on the faithful as they go forth after Mass, to not only seek, hear and venerate the Word at Sunday Mass, but to engage with it always, and put it into practice:

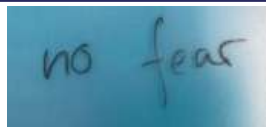

"Love and serve the Lord,
by loving and serving one another."

*Finally, our patron, St. James, on God's Good News:

"Be doers of the word, and not hearers only..."

By God's grace, faith, word, and deed...we want to see Him.

'Do not fear, for I am with you;
Do not be afraid, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Is. 41:10

Gospel Meditation— Father John Muir

My friend and fellow pastor, Father Paul, noticed unsightly, overgrown trees near his parish church.

He asked the maintenance crew to cut back the growth, which they happily did, telling him the trees would be much healthier and even fuller after a good pruning. A few days later, Father Paul received a letter from an irate man in the neighborhood who wrote, "Jesus would never prune trees like that. He loves trees, unlike you."

I suspect that the neighbor was not familiar with this week's Gospel in which Jesus says of his Father,

"He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit" (John 15:2)

I don't mean to pick too much on that fellow. He was perhaps ignorant of arboriculture. But I'd wager his main confusion was the pruning and removing quality of God's love. That confusion afflicts us all to some degree, doesn't it? It is just so darn easy to react negatively when God cuts something out of our lives and assume it's not his work at all. In the moment, all we see is the loss, and not the loving desire for future flourishing.

The cross is the great pruning of Christ's body. Jesus' rising is the brand-new growth. It is God's promise to us that all the painful pruning in life is leading us somewhere beautiful. What has been cut back or out in your life? A friend, an opportunity, a sense of certainty, a job, health, a relationship? This week, offer those dry branches to the one who lovingly prunes us in order to make our lives burst with verdant growth.
