Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Our New Pastor is Fr. Matt Murphy

I am pleased to announce that Fr. Matt Murphy will be joining our St. James family as pastor on July 1st.

Fr. Matt was born in Pennsylvania in 1965 but spent most of his life in Southern California where his home parishes were St. Didacus, Sylmar and St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Santa Clarita.

His first career was in the grocery industry working for almost 30 years for companies such as Safeway Stores, Weber's Bread, and Snapple Beverage Company.

While in his mid-30s God caught his attention and he returned to the Catholic Church after a 20-year absence. A year later, Fr. Matt was serving his parish as a youth minister, and a brief time later he began to discern a call to the priesthood.

He entered St. John Seminary, Camarillo, in September 2009 and was ordained a priest on June 4, 2016.

Following an initial 2-year assignment at St. Monica's, Santa Monica, Fr. Matt was sent to Malibu to Our Lady of Malibu Church as Administrator and was appointed as pastor of the parish in July 2020.

Fr. Matt looks forward to building a vibrant community at St. James that will shine Christ's light throughout Redondo Beach and the surrounding areas.

He'll be meeting with the Pastoral Council, Finance Council and Office Staff in the coming weeks.

We look forward to welcoming him to St. James as he makes his move here to the South Bay.

Blessings!

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Mother's Day Novena

Remember your mom with a novena of Masses. We'll celebrate a Mass every day beginning on Mother's day and continuing until the end of the month. A great way to honor her and pray for her.

You'll find the cards and envelopes in the vestibule of the church. Fill them out and drop in the collection basket. We'll collect these and place them on the altar.

Holy Hour Adoration

Friday, May 10th at 7 pm

Benediction and Adoration

Friday, May 17th
after the 8am Mass until 12 noon

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is creature before his Creator.

It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil.

Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever greater God.

Adoration of the thrice-holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives us assurance to our supplications.—CCC 2628

Congratulations to the children who received their First Communion last weekend! What a joy it was to welcome them to the Eucharistic table at our parish Masses.

Remember registration for Vacation Bible School is open and filling quickly! VBS will be held at St. James School from 9:30-12:30 the week of June 24th-28th. Go to the parish website to register: www.saintjames.church/vbs.

Today, we celebrate Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 10am Mass. We hope all our parish children will join us!

Also at the 10am Mass, we also celebrate the end of another year of Religious Education. Well over 100 of our parish families have participated in Religious Education programs this year between Traditional Faith Formation, Family Faith Formation, Children's Liturgy of the Word, our Family Days of Service, our Family Field Trip to the Cathedral, the Lenten Family 40, and Holy Pause, which was our Lenten Family Faith experience.

It has been a joy to walk with all of you as you raise children of faith!

We want to thank all the Catechists, Aides, Table Leaders, Yard Duty Parents, and Traffic Monitors who have served the children and families of St. James Parish this year. It has been a blessing and honor to live out our baptismal call to serve alongside you.

Finally, as we dwell in the joy of the last days of the Easter season, we ask that you consider if you are called to the ministry of Catechesis, which is to echo the love of God in the world.

If so, please reach out to the Office of Religious Education to start a conversation. There are so many ways to serve the people of St. James Parish as a Catechists, and we hope you will consider if the Spirit calls you to this ministry.

God bless!

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

Topic: Catholicity

The Saint James choir sings a song about "spiritual connection," proclaiming:

"I am the vine, you are the branches..."

Those words from the text of John 15 were a focus in a recent Sunday, (First Communion,) Mass. Here Jesus teaches that we must remain in Him:

"By this my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

To that end we profess the belief outlined within the Nicene Creed:

"I believe in one holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church."

The fourth century Byzantine -days confab which articulated that creed was convened by Constantine and attended by more than 300 Bishops in Nicaea, an ancient Greek walled town, (present day Iznik, Turkey.)

Speaking of spiritual connectivity, among the early vines and branches were the Apostles, originally chosen by Jesus to teach and spread his Word.

Q: What are just some of the qualities of faith discernable among four of these Apostles as described in the accounts of their lives?

A: Matthew, the publican tax collector, answered the call of Jesus, going from sinner to penance.

"He wrote his Gospel to teach his countrymen that Jesus was their true Lord and King."

Mark, known as the "Evangelist," wrote about the teachings of Jesus and those of St. Paul. In Alexandria, Egypt, in true apostolic fashion, Mark set up the first Christian school. This apostle is admired for his eloquence and faithful interpretation of even the gestures, words and looks of Jesus.

Luke, though not an eyewitness of the life of Jesus, contributes as "the historian of the New Testament." His Acts of the Apostles is a sequel to his Gospel. He died a martyr's death.

John was the youngest of the apostles, and is also known as "the Evangelist." This apostle was present at the Agony, the Transfiguration, the Last Supper, and with Mary at the foot of the Cross. He wrote his Gospel and later, on the isle of Patmos, described heavenly visions of the Apocalypse.

These apostles taught and spread the Word. Reverend Alban Butler, in his Lives of the Saints reflects the theme of vine and branches regarding our own role as disciples:

"Christ has given all He had for thee; do thou give all thou hast for Him?"

Each of us, following the apostolic tradition, are disciples, capable of bearing much fruit.

Once a man came to the Vatican and asked to see Pope John Paul II, claiming that they had been friends in Poland.

When told of the man, the Pope said,

"He is mistaken about our friendship.

I don't recall ever having suffered with him."

As it turned out, the man had never known the Pope.

Now, I'm not sure if the story is totally factual. But doesn't the juxtaposition of suffering with friendship sound exactly like JP II?

He understood that the deepest and most lasting friendships are forged in the fires of shared suffering. No suffering, no friendship. Amazing.

This week we hear Jesus say to the apostles and to us,

"You are my friends if you do what I command you" (John 15:14).

In Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, God entered the world of human suffering and transformed it into an avenue of friendship with Himself. Following His command — to love, to lay down our lives for others — will always entail suffering. But this suffering only deepens our friendship with Him. His suffering is ours; ours is His. We have become friends of God.

This week, how might you share your suffering with the Risen Jesus?

How might he be sharing his suffering with you, in the lives of those around you? Be attentive to that, and you'll find that you are indeed a friend of God, because you've suffered together a great deal.
