John 21:1-19

When they climbed out on shore,
they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread.
Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught."
So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish.
Even though there were so many, the net was not torn.
Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast."
And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?"
because they realized it was the Lord.
Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them,
and in like manner the fish.
This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

Welcome!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Hello beautiful children of God!

In John 21:1-19, we encounter a moment of profound mercy and mission. The disciples are back in Galilee, back where it all began. Peter says, "I'm going fishing," not just out of boredom, but perhaps confusion—maybe even discouragement. After denying Jesus three times, Peter likely felt disqualified. So, he returns to what he knows.

But then Jesus shows up—on the shore, at dawn, just as He did when He first called them. He tells them to cast their nets, and again, the nets are filled. It's a moment of divine déjà vu, and John gets it: "It is the Lord!"

Now, the charcoal fire is key. The only other charcoal fire in John's Gospel is where Peter denied Jesus. Now, at another fire, Jesus invites Peter into healing—not by shaming him, but by restoring him. Three times He asks, "Do you love me?" Three denials. Three chances to respond in love.

But notice this: Jesus doesn't just restore Peter. He recommissions him. "Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep." Jesus entrusts His flock to a broken, forgiven man. That's grace. And that's our call too.

God doesn't wait for perfect people. He calls those willing to return to the shore, admit their weakness, and say, "Yes, Lord, I love You."

If you've failed, don't stay in the boat. Don't go back to the "old life." Jesus is standing on the shore of your heart, asking, "Do you love Me?" If your answer is yes—even with trembling lips—He says, "Then follow Me."

He has a mission for you.

Happy Easter!

Fr Matt Murphy

DID YOU KNOW?

Safe adults can have a generational effect

A child who is a victim of sexual abuse does not just suffer in the moment of the abuse, but in the short and long term afterwards. Abuse has far-reaching consequences, and studies have shown that children of parents who were abused as children, and even grandchildren, are more likely to also experience abuse. Safe adults can break this cycle, by being aware of potentially dangerous situations and by providing a safe space and listening ear for the children in their care. TOGETHER IN MISSION

As we celebrate the Jubilee Year of the Catholic Church, we invite you to make a special gift to Together in Mission to mark this sacred time of renewal & hope.

As one Catholic community of faith, rooted in prayer, let us reflect on how we can support our underserved parishes and schools in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Did you know that one in every five parishes and one in every four Catholic schools rely on financial assistance to continue their vital ministries? Your generosity directly impacts these communities, providing the resources they need to thrive.

This year's cumulative Together in Mission goal is $17.7 million, representing the collective efforts of our Catholic family across all five regions. Your parish's goal and progress throughout the year can be tracked on the Together in Mission Leaderboard at togetherinmission.org. Let us come together to make a difference and bring the love of Christ to those in need. Please consider making a special Jubilee Year gift to Together in Mission today!

THE ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION (OCI)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I extend to you an invitation to embark on a journey of faith and discovery in the sacred mystery of Christ's Church.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCI) offers a path of encounter with the living God, who calls each of us to communion with Him through the sacraments and the fullness of truth found in the Catholic Church.

In these times, when many seek answers to life's deepest questions, the Church stands as a beacon of light, offering the eternal wisdom of Christ's Gospel and the rich heritage of faith handed down through the ages.

To those who are drawn to know Christ more fully and to enter into the life of the Church, the OCI is a place of grace where you will be accompanied by fellow parishioners who have already answered the call to discipleship.

Here, you will be nourished by the Word of God, encounter the profound reality of the sacraments, and be guided by the teachings of Holy Mother Church.

This is not merely a program of instruction but a spiritual pilgrimage into the heart of the Church, where the saving love of Christ is made present. I encourage you, dear friends, to respond to this call with open hearts.

Whether you are discerning your place within the Church or have already begun to sense God's gentle invitation, the OCI offers a space of prayerful reflection and growth in faith.

What starts as a spark of curiosity may grow into the flame of a life lived in Christ.

May the Lord guide you as you seek to know Him more deeply, and may you find in the Church the true home of your soul.

For more information, please contact the parish office or me directly at OCI@Stjamesparish.org

Together, let us walk this sacred path toward Christ, the source of all truth and life.

Yours In Christ,

Ben Aranda,
Director of OCI

I encourage you, my dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to deepen your devotion to our blessed Mother Mary as Legionaries. We hope you consider becoming a member and join us!

"a miracle of these modern times."

Cardinal Suenens wrote: "Today, two currents dominate the life of the Church: the Marian current and the apostolic current." These two currents meet and blend harmoniously in the Legion of Mary, which has been a providential instrument in the hands of Mary and the Church for the spread of the Kingdom of God on earth.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION/ RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Happy Easter! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Congratulations to our parish children who received the Eucharist for the first time this weekend!

Remember, as part of their preparation, the children and their families have completed a family faith formation experience called, "Families Transform." We invite you to stop in the vestibule at church to see the artwork the children created after this experience. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers as they live into the joy of receiving the Body of Christ!

Also, as the Office of Religious Education moves to our parish school, we are also getting a new name! The Office of Family Faith Formation will continue to accompany our parish families as they raise children of faith. While education will always be a part of what we do, the name change helps communicate that what we are really about is faith formation, forming children and families in the people and families God intends them to be. We look forward to walking with your family on your journey of faith.

If you are interested in serving with children in the parish, we are hosting a Livescan (Fingerprinting) session on Monday, May 12, at the St. James School between 12-6. Livescan is a required step for those who minister with children in the parish, so please sign up if you are thinking about serving in programs within Family Faith Formation, Youth Ministry, or at the school. Call 310-372-5228 to schedule.

As we dwell in the joy of Easter, we ask that you consider if you are called to the ministry of Catechesis, which is to echo the love of God in the world. If so, please reach out to the Office of Family Faith Formation to start a conversation. There are so many ways to serve the people of St. James Parish as a Catechists, and we hope you will consider if the Spirit calls you to this ministry.

May you have a blessed and joyful Easter! Alleluia!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Family Faith Formation/ Religious Education

CATHOLIC Q & A

J.P. ALEGRIA

GOD'S PLAN

Amid the passing of Pope Francis, it seems fitting that we explore Father Sebastian's book which Pastor Matt gifted us, Heart Of The Gospel, wherein we read about "the spiritual character of the Messianic Kingdom in simple, beautifully accessible biblical poetry." Francis seemed to echo these themes in practice. That holy lexicon, embedded with terms such as: humility, mercy, sincerity, and compassion, is where we find the defining goods and ideals of the beatitudes, namely: faith, love and happiness.

In this Jubilee Year of Hope we turn attention to Vatican City, its Apostolic Palace and Sistine Chapel. In that setting of Renaissance masterpieces of painting and sculpture by Michelangelo, Botticelli, Raphael and multiple other artists we find 136 Cardinals gathered for mourning, then the general congregations that culminate in conclave and the white smoke of papal succession.

Q: What, briefly and in general terms, can be said about a Pope's legacy, the future of nearly 1.4 billion Catholics around the world, and the Beatitudes at this inflection point in history?

A: We watch and pray for a fruitful outcome of the conclave, which Pope John Paul II called "a duty to elect, by apostolic norms, the Successor of Peter,....Servant of the Servants of God."

We appreciate the Jesuit Pope Francis, "the People's Pope with "the heart of a pastor," and his humble yet powerful advocacy in leadership. Historian Jon Meachum said that the Pope's "tonal and theological shifts mark the best of the noblest parts of the Gospels." Cardinal Dolan of New York points out that Jesus, despite the crowds described in the Gospels, always seemed to recognize those on the margins such as the woman with the chronic illness, or the man on the side of the road who called out to the son of David. Similarly, Cardinal Dolan called Pope Francis's own eye on the marginal as a "radar" of sorts; his humility, compassion and love, a "hug" for everyone.

Love. The heart of the Gospel. Biblical poetry of accessibility. Beatitudes of happiness, put into practice.
